M-0.51 Transportation Rights

Must be explained prior to transporting the individual. 1) You have the right to be told the reason for your detainment and the limitations of that detainment. You have the right to not be detained in a jail, lockup, or other place used for confinement of persons charged with or convicted of penal offenses.

2) Unless otherwise permitted by state and federal law, you have the right not to be detained under an emergency transportation hold for longer than 14 hours. You have a right not to be transported longer than 6 hours and to receive a screening within 8 hours after being presented to a receiving facility.

3) You have the right to make a phone call to an interested party prior to being transported unless access to a phone poses physical danger to you or someone else. If this right is restricted, the receiving facility shall make the call on your behalf immediately upon arrival at the facility.

4) You have the right to keep and use your cell phone, unless access to your phone causes you to destabilize or will result in danger to yourself of others.
